

The East Carroll Baptist Association will hold its quarterly session on the 3th of March. All members are expected to be present. Also members of the Women's Association and Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress.

Rev. J. H. Scott, president of the parent body, and Bro. Sylvester Jones attended the state meeting of the Baptist Convention the first of the month, and Rev. Scott invited the convention to hold their next meeting in Lake Providence. The invitation was accepted. The meeting will be held in May.

World Day of Prayer was observed at the First Baptist church Friday evening, sponsored by the Women's Missionary Society. Bro. F. J. Atlas addressed the group. He spoke on the national theme, "One Flock, One Shepherd". The message was very inspiring.

The members of North Star Baptist church invites all persons who do not have their membership with any particular Sunday School or are out of bond of their school to be present with them Sunday morning and Sunday night worship service. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Scott, will preach from the subject "The Right Use of Liberty", Roman 8:9.

The East Carroll Baptist Association closed its 45 annual session July 10. The meeting began Monday, with the Usher Union having its first anniversary, which was quite impressive and inspirational. Bro. Seal Hymes was re-elected president of the Union and Sister Elizabeth Hines re-elected secretary.

The Parish Women's Association convened Wednesday. During their annual meeting they were successful in raising enough funds to finish paying for the chairs in the Center building. Sister Beulah Wooten was re-elected president and sister Daisy Clay, secretary.

The general association was well attended, with most of the ministers cooperating. Churches who were represented in full and in part were: Mt. Zion, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Olive, Rose Hill, Central Baptist, Central Baptist No. 2, Second Baptist, Progressive Chapel, North Star, Jerusalem, First Baptist, St. Mary, New Hope, Sweet Canaan, Antioch, Pilgrim Rest, New Bethlehem and Union Baptist No. 2. About 90 percent of the ministers enrolled. Thursday night Rev. A. N. Murray spoke; he also showed a missionary picture. Along with Rev. Murray was Rev. Cannon, pastor of the Transylvania Baptist church. Rev. J. H. Scott was re-elected president and all other officers were re-elected. Sister Genevieve Shorter was elected treasurer. She is the first woman in the history of the association to hold this position. Dr. Calvin Perkins ad-addressed the group Friday night. The memorial ceremonies were quite impressive. Rev. H. T. James delivered the Memorial Sermon. Those members who deceased during the past twelve months were: Rev. J. W. Watson, Bro. G. B. Carr, Bro. Sam Shorter, Bro. G. A. Banks, Sister Estella Burell, Bro. Fred Pernell, and Bro. Dudley Threats, Sr.

East Carroll Parish Well Represented
In 4-H Wildlife Encampment at Camp Jordan-Johnson

June 29 through July 3, 21 4-H members of East Carroll attended the state "Wildlife" camp at Camp Jordan-Johnson, Calhoun, La.

On Tuesday three classes were taught at which time instructions were given on the following: "Electricity", taught by E. A. Hodge; "Forestry," L. M. Romeo and Richardson; "Rodent Control", Sessums. These three classes were taught until Thursday noon.

Tuesday night a talent program was presented. Children representing their parishes appeared on the program. East Carroll was represented by Dorothy Hawkins with a humorous reading entitled "Don't Tell Me No Gossip, I Won't Listen", and Fred Dickerson, who did the "Ham Bone".

Thursday night East Carroll was represented by solos from Dorothy Hawkins, and Frank Lucas, and a reading from Almary Campbell.

4-H'ers played many new games. While camping two very interesting movies were shown "Forestry, Heritage We Guard" and the other a Western. A dance was staged after the Thursday night talent program.

Encampment ended Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. East Carroll 4-H'ers arrived home at 1 o'clock p. m.
