NOTICE

Re: Civil Action No. 8257-M, U. S. of America vs. Cecil Manning, et al

Your application for an order of qualification to vote has been received.

By order of the United States Court of Appeals, the stay which had previously suspended proceedings in this case has been vacated. Accordingly, the hearing on your application will be had on the second floor of the Post Office Building in Monroe, Louisiana, at 10:30 A. M. o'clock, Thursday, July 12, 1962.

You are entitled to appear at the above time and place to have your qualification considered. If you fail to appear at the hearing on July 12, 1962, the Court will consider this to mean that you no longer wish to have your qualification to vote considered by the Court.

Sincerely yours,

Alton L. Curtis
